

Lesson 22

Hebrews 13:17-25

Read Heb 13:17-25

1. What does the author tell them about their interactions with leadership? What specific commands does he make? What characteristics/attitudes are mentioned? (v17-19)
2. How can we make the work of our spiritual leaders a joy? How do we make it a burden?
3. a. How is God described in the benediction of verses 20-21?

b. How is Jesus described?

c. How do these descriptions encourage you today?
4. What is the author praying for the Hebrews in this prayer? (v21)

5. Consider what role or responsibility you have for which you do not feel equipped. Would you be willing to ask your small group to pray for the LORD to equip you for that work?

6. Pray for one another in small group time, if possible, but also as you think of each other during the weeks ahead, for the LORD to work what is pleasing in His sight in each member of your group.

Reflect on the book of Hebrews as a whole. Read back through as you are able.

7. How has the Holy Spirit used Hebrews to encourage you?

8. What verse or passage stands out most in your mind?

9. How have you gained deeper appreciation for what Jesus has done for you?
